Description: Polytechnic University of Puerto Rico (PUPR) is a private, non-profit institution of higher education founded in 1966. It is the nation's largest private, Hispanic Serving Institution (HSI) specialized in engineering. PUPR is an urban university located in the heart of the financial district (the so-called Golden Mile) of the capital city of San Juan. Since its inception, PUPR has specialized in the technological professions of engineering and land surveying, and since 1995, architecture. It also offers graduate and undergraduate programs in business administration and education. In 2001 a campus in Miami, Florida was established, and an additional one in Orlando in 2003.

Campus: The campus is composed of five new buildings, and two renovated buildings in a 10-acre setting of the city center. A 1,000-car parking garage and a central plaza complete the campus site.
